GVTC Charitable Golf Classic scores record amount

SMITHSON VALLEY, June 11, 2015 — A new location that accommodated more golfers helped drive record setting results from the 2015 GVTC Charitable Golf Classic. The May 5, 2015 event raised $128,704 for The GVTC Foundation.

This year's Classic took place at The Resort at La Cantera. The scenic Hill Country venue helped draw 182 participants — a 21 percent increase from last year. Golfers played on the Resort and Palmer courses. Many of the participants are regulars of the Golf Classic, who travel from around the country to support The GVTC Foundation.

Money from the tournament is directed to nonprofits throughout GVTC's service area. It also supports the Sorrells and Armstrong Scholarships, along with the Foundation's endowment fund. Approximately 96 cents of every dollar received by the Foundation goes back to these areas.

The tournament is managed by several GVTC employees, who volunteer their time to plan and operate the event.

“On behalf of the Foundation's board of directors, I'd like to thank our sponsors and employee volunteers for making the 2015 Golf Classic our best ever,” The GVTC Foundation President, Paula White, said. “People in need, along with our scholarship recipients, are going to benefit tremendously from this tournament.”

The GVTC Golf Classic has generated more than $1 million in contributions over the 11 year history of the event.
